PART A: GENERAL

1. Authority for Introduction and Citation

These Bye-laws are made by the General Committee of the Club pursuant to the provisions of the clause (1) of Article 55 of the Articles of Association of the Club (“Articles”). They shall be read in conjunction with the Articles.

2. Power of Making, Amending, etc. of Bye-laws

A Bye-law may be made, altered or repealed by the General Committee in their absolute discretion, and the making, alteration, or repeal, as the case may be, shall become effective on a date to be specified by the General Committee.

3. Discretion of the General Committee

Where, pursuant to any Bye-laws, any matter is to be determined in the discretion of the General Committee, no person affected by the exercise of their discretion shall be entitled to call for or receive any explanation of their discretion or to any compensation or any other indemnity consequential upon the exercise by the General Committee of their discretion.

4. Method of Publication

Publication of any Bye-laws made and any alteration to, or repeal of a Bye-law, as the case may be, shall be effective by publishing a notice on the notice board on the Ground floor of the Club building or through any other means of communication, including electronic means.

5. Notice

All members shall be deemed to have received a notice of the making/alteration/repeal of any Bye-laws thereof on the day on which such notice is published on the notice board.

6. The Bye-Laws and Rules of the Club

- 6.1 Each member is obliged to observe the provisions of the Articles and all the Bye-laws (the “Rules of the Club”) at all times.
- 6.2 Each member is obliged to ensure that his/her supplementary card holder(s) (“Supplementary Card Holder(s)”), guest(s) and others authorized by the Club to use any facilities of the Club shall abide by and be subject to the Rules of the Club to the extent the same are applicable to them.
- 6.3 Members’, Supplementary Card Holders’ and their guests’ behaviour shall conform to the dictates of the society. Any misconduct or misbehaviour shall be treated as a breach of the Rules of the Club.

6. The Bye-Laws and Rules of the Club (continued)

6.4 If any allegation or complaint is received by the Club's General Manager that a member or any person referred to in Bye-law 6.2 has infringed any one or more of the Rules of the Club, the Club's General Manager may refer such allegation or complaint to the General Committee. If the allegation or complaint is established, in the opinion of the General Committee, the member may be liable to disciplinary action, such as expulsion from membership of the Club or suspension of the privileges of membership of the Club.

6A. Admission to membership

6A.1 The admission for membership shall be in compliance with such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the General Committee from time to time.

6B. Absent Members

6B.1 Any Founder Member, Honorary Member, Senior Member, Ordinary Member and Spouse Member who intends to leave Hong Kong may become an absent member ("Absent Member"). The rights and privileges attached to the membership of any member including those of his/her Supplementary Card Holders and guests, who is placed on the Absent Members' list shall be suspended throughout the period during which such member is placed on such list.

6B.2 Any member who intends to leave Hong Kong for a period exceeding 3 consecutive months, and is desirous of being placed on the Absent Members' list shall apply in writing to the General Manager no later than 14 days before the date of his/her departure specifying details of his/her date of departure and anticipated date of return (if any) and provide such documentation in support of his/her application as may be requested by the General Manager (for example, copy of electronic air-ticket). If the General Manager approves the application, the member shall pay an absent fee of such amount as the General Committee may determine from time to time and will be placed on the Absent Members' list for a term of one year from the first day of the month following the date on which his/her application has been approved, or if he/she returns to Hong Kong before the expiration of one year, until the date he/she returns to Hong Kong.

Absent membership application will only be effective subject to the settlement of all outstanding balance and the return of any properties of the Club (e.g. locker key); otherwise, member is still liable to pay the full month's subscriptions.

6B.3 Upon expiration of the term of one year, or in case the Absent Member returns to Hong Kong before the expiration of the one year term, upon the Absent Member returning to Hong Kong, the rights and privileges attached to his/her membership (including those of his/her Supplementary Card Holders and guests) shall automatically resume and he/she shall be liable to pay monthly subscriptions commencing from and in respect of the month in which the said term expires, or the month in which he/she returns to Hong Kong, unless he/she renews his/her Absent Membership pursuant to Bye-law 6B.4. Absent Members returning to Hong Kong before the expiration of the one year term are required to notify the General Manager in writing of his/her return within 7 days of his/her return to Hong Kong, but irrespective of whether such notice is given or not his/her liability to pay monthly subscriptions shall resume from and in respect of the month in which he/she returns to Hong Kong.

6B.4 An Absent Member may, no later than 14 days prior to the expiration of the one year term, apply in writing to the General Manager to renew his/her Absent Membership specifying his/her anticipated date of return (if any) and providing such documentation in support of his/her application as may be requested by the General Manager. If approved, the Absent Member shall pay an absent fee for such amount as the General Committee may determine from time to time and will be placed on the Absent Members' list for a further term of one year. The Absent Membership may be further renewed in accordance with this Bye-law, and Bye-laws 6B.1 to 6B.3 shall apply mutual mutandis to any renewed terms.

6C. Resignation of Membership

6C.1 Any member may resign his/her membership by giving notice in writing to the Secretary of the Club no later than 14 days prior to the commencement of a month otherwise, he/she will be held liable for that month's subscription. Where the resigning member is the holder of debenture(s), the notice of resignation shall be accompanied by a request to the General Committee to accept a surrender of the debentures of the resigning member pursuant to the Articles.

6D. Eligibility for General Committee

6D.1 Only members who satisfy such eligibility criteria as may from time to time be specified by the General Committee shall be eligible to run for the General Committee. In particular:

- (i) candidates must be Founder Members, Senior Members or Ordinary Members;
- (ii) candidates must have served on at least 2 Sub-Committees for an aggregate period of 2 years in the immediately preceding 10 years.

7. Payment of Goods and Services

- 7.1 All goods and services must be purchased by the use of a membership card or supplementary card issued by the Club.
- 7.2 Each transaction will be evidenced by a signed voucher and debited to the members' account in the month in which the transaction takes place.
- 7.3 A voucher bearing the impression of a member's membership card or any supplementary card issued at the request of a member shall be conclusive evidence of the purchase by the member or for his/her account of the goods and services referred to therein.
- 7.4 Cash transactions are prohibited on the premises of the Club.

8. Membership Card and Supplementary Card

- 8.1 Each member shall be entitled to have a membership card which will bear such information as may be decided by the General Committee from time to time.
- 8.2 Each member shall be entitled to request the issuance of a supplementary card for his/her spouse. By making such application, the member shall be deemed to have agreed to be responsible to make payment to the Club for all charges incurred by use of the supplementary card.
- 8.3 Each member shall be entitled to request the issuance of a supplementary card for each unmarried child between the age of 8 and 20. By making such application, the member shall be deemed to have agreed to be responsible to make payment to the Club for all charges incurred by the use of each supplementary card. Any Supplementary Card Holder who reaches the age of 21 is obliged to return his/her supplementary card to the Club.
- 8.4 Until the loss of a membership card or supplementary card is reported to the Membership and Promotion Department, the member to whom the membership card was issued shall be responsible for all transactions involving the use of the membership card or supplementary card. Application shall be made for the issuance of a replacement in the event of loss of any membership card or supplementary card. The member will have to pay a fee for the replacement of the card, which will be determined by the General Committee from time to time.
- 8.5 Each membership card and supplementary card(s) are the properties of the Club and will be surrendered to the Club upon the written request of the Membership and Promotion Department.
- 8.6 A membership card or supplementary card may only be used by the person whose name appears on the card. The card is not transferable (including to family members) and cannot be used by any other person under any circumstances.
- 8.7 A valid membership card or supplementary card must be presented for inspection upon request by any staff of the Club.

8. Membership Card and Supplementary Card (continued)

- 8.8 A member or Supplementary Card Holder who uses or purchases any goods or services from the Club and is unable to present his/her valid membership card or supplementary card(s) shall have breached the Rules of the Club and be liable to disciplinary proceedings, which shall be determined by the General Committee. Moreover, the Club will not provide goods or services to the member or Supplementary Card Holder.
- 8.9 The member can apply in writing to the General Manager to cancel the supplementary card(s) of his/her spouse and/or children no later than 7 days before the effective date. The cancellation is effective subject to the return of the said card(s) to the Club.

9. Accounts of Members

- 9.1 Amounts of supplies or charges for using facilities shall be signed by the member or Supplementary Card Holder concerned using voucher provided by the Club. Membership card or supplementary card must be presented for payment settlement.
- 9.2 Direct debit authorization will be applied to charge member's monthly subscription and consumption at the Club. Amounts due will be collected by the Club from the member's account on the 17th day of each month or if that day is a public holiday on the immediate following working day upon issue of the monthly statement. Any outstanding amount payable by other methods must be settled within 14 days from the issue date of the monthly statement.
- 9.3 Payment of all accounts other than that by direct debit authorization shall be made to the Club by cash or by crossed cheque or by e-cheque made payable to "YAU YAT CHUEN GARDEN CITY CLUB LTD."
- 9.4 A 2% monthly interest and an administrative fee shall be levied on any balance of any amounts due which are not paid within 14 days from the issue date of the monthly statement as the Club in its absolute discretion may determine.

9. Accounts of Members (continued)

- 9.5 Should a member fail to pay any amount owing to the Club at the end of the month in which a reminder letter of such outstanding account shall be sent, the name of the member concerned and the amount due shall be posted on the notice board of the Club for 1 week. If his/her account is still unpaid after the expiration of such 1 week, the member's membership shall be deemed to be automatically suspended (and the rights and privileges of any Supplementary Card Holder and guests shall accordingly also be suspended). In addition, the General Committee may in their absolute discretion, decide what appropriate action, if any, shall be taken having considered the circumstances, including without limitation expulsion from membership of the Club.
- 9.6 The subscription of any member activated or re-activated during the month is payable from the commencement of that month. Should any member becomes inactive or withdraws from the Club after the commencement of a month, he/she will be held liable for full month's subscription.
- 9.7 Any increase in subscription by the General Committee shall not come into force until at least 2 months after the decision to increase has been circulated to the members but any accidental omission to circulate the decision to any member shall not invalidate the circular nor prevent the increase from coming into effect.
- 9.8 The General Committee may, in addition to other powers conferred, at any time they see fit, have the account of any member made up and call upon the member concerned to forthwith pay it and if the member concerned shall fail to comply with such request to pay up such account furnished to him/her, the member's membership shall be deemed to be automatically suspended (and the rights and privileges of any Supplementary Card Holder and guests shall accordingly also be suspended).
- 9.9 An administrative fee of HK$20 per copy of accounting document(s) shall be charged by debiting his/her personal account upon request by a member.
